MESSAGE

I am glad to know that the Centenary celebrations of IIT Banaras Hindu University (BHU), Varanasi, are being organized on February 12, 2019 to mark the 100 years of glorious and illustrious working of the institution. Congratulations to the entire fraternity of the institution on this proud occasion.

Varanasi is a divine land, which has seen confluence of the best in the realms of spirituality and science. Reflecting the core values and features of our civilization, it has been an open space for synthesis of knowledge for the advancement of the nation. India's premier institutions were born here and evolved over time in its modern history to take the nation to new heights.

IIT (BHU) has been carrying this proud genius of the land and its illustrious alumni have contributed to the glory of the nation in all walks of life. It has emerged as the premier institution for technology studies and researches in the region and has been contributing towards the technological transformation of the country.

I am sure that the institution will continue to build on its century long glorious heritage and endeavour further towards building a New India, where innovations and ideas will be nurtured for the shared prosperity of the nation. I convey my best wishes for all the programmes planned as part of the centenary celebrations.

Best wishes for the future journey of the institution in its efforts to take the nation towards greater glory.

MESSAGE

I am delighted to learn that the Indian Institute of Technology (BHU), Varanasi, is organizing its centenary celebrations in February, 2019. The Institute owes its existence to the unparalleled vision of Bharat Ratna Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviyaji, who established the Benares Engineering College in 1919.

For the past 100 years, the Institute has played a vital role in nation building through quality research, and value based learning, in the field of engineering and technology education. It has produced world class engineers, academicians and entrepreneurs over these years.

I am sure that the Institute shall put all efforts to achieve its centenary vision. I wish all the success for its centenary celebrations.

(Narendra Modi)
