Coverage:

The session will offer a glimpse into different processes involved in writing a book with a global publisher including formulating book proposals, timelines, copyrights, royalties, and other important factors. This webinar is useful to all professionals, faculty, researchers, and scientists who need a comprehensive understanding of research publication and the various forms in which it can be published.

Speakers:

Aakash Chakrabarty

Senior Commissioning Editor
Politics & International Relations

Aakash commissions research monographs, edited collections, handbooks, reference texts, short form books and readers in the areas of politics, especially political theory and processes, public policy and administration, migration, social exclusion & discrimination, and South Asian studies. He also looks at works on environment, religion, and digital humanities. He is actively looking to commission manuscripts on key topical issues.
